

I think this is the best place for broadband, I have my broadband through SBC and am very happy with it and would never purchase broadband products over power lines. Why would anyone want to get internet through there power lines, that is totally stupid.